Dear
Music-lovers,

Dr. Peter Hanser-Strecker, Publisher

2020 is a special year for Schott Music. We are celebrating our 250th anniversary and are extremely proud to look back on a quarter of a millennium of European music history that, along with our composers and committed staff, we have shared and helped to shape. Our anniversary motto, "Joy of Music", will accompany us throughout the year, as it helps to express the pleasure we find in music and music making. The motto also pays tribute to Ludwig van Beethoven, whose 250th birthday we also celebrate this year. Beethoven's "Ode to Joy" (from Symphony No. 9 in D minor) was first published by Schott Music.

250 JOY OF MUSIC

"Joy of Music" also provides the title for our anniversary editions for piano, violin, cello, flute and clarinet. A multifaceted collection of works by great composers, whose names are inextricably linked to the history of Schott Music. The Schott Archive series also presents reprints of selected treasures from our historic archives.

Whether you are a beginner or a professional, a musicologist or an enthusiast: this catalogue has something for everyone.

Martin Stadtfeld has established himself as one of the leading German pianists of the past 10 years and has performed with many major orchestras and festivals. His Handel Variations, published by Schott, is a collection of arrangements of well-known arias and instrumental pieces that is sure to enrich the repertoire of advanced pianists.

The latest choral work by Karl Jenkins takes us on a journey of reflection and meditation. Our publishing partner Boosey & Hawkes presents his choral work, Miserere, which has topped the classical charts in the UK.

Discover much more online. Visit www.schott-music.com/catalogues to browse through our digital catalogues or download them as PDF files.

We wish to thank all of our authors, composers and customers for their continued loyalty and support.

Sincerely yours,

Peter Hanser-Strecker

Martin Stadtfeld plays Handel

11 arrangements for piano

- The matching folio to the album
- Arias and instrumental works for piano
- For intermediate to advanced pianists

In this collection of Handel Variations, Martin Stadtfeld has transcribed famous compositions by the baroque master for piano, from the intimate and pure Lascia ch'io pianga to the energetic and vibrant Sarabande Variations. This collection is suitable for those looking for concert repertoire and is also ideal for use in advanced piano lessons. Martin Stadtfeld's album Handel Variations was released in 2019 by Sony Classical.

About Martin Stadtfeld

From the age of seven Martin Stadtfeld knew he wanted to be a concert pianist. In early piano lessons with Hubertus Weimer he explored counterpoint and harmony and at fourteen he began studying with Lev Natochenny in Frankfurt. In 2002 he won the Bach Competition in Leipzig and recorded the Goldberg Variations for Sony at the age of 22. A rather exceptional beginning to his career.

His passion for baroque music led him to write his own compositions and arrangements, including these Handel Variations, a new arrangement for piano of Bach's Chaconne, and his Homage to Bach.

Anyone can be a Mini Maestro!

Piano pieces for your little prodigy

- Varied Repertoire
- Presented in a progressive order
- Ideal companion for piano lessons

The three-volume collection Mini Maestro presents little piano pieces advancing progressively from very easy to intermediate level, presented in chronological order across five centuries from the Baroque, Classical, Romantic and Modern eras through to jazz, pop and minimal music. Each volume concludes with three additional pieces for piano duet. All the pieces are easy to learn and are an ideal supplement to any piano method with music suitable for concerts, lessons, exams and competitions.

Piano Treasures

Discoveries from the Schott Archives

- Treasures from the Schott Archives to mark the 250th anniversary of Schott Music
- Original pieces and virtuoso arrangements of standard repertoire
- Works by Alkan, Czerny, Gounod, Gottschalk, Liszt, Thalberg, Wagner, and more

To celebrate the 250th anniversary of Schott Music, these treasures from the depths of the archives have been brought forward and reedited. An anthology aimed at professional musicians and advanced amateurs looking for new repertoire. It contains works largely from the Romantic era: virtuoso pièces de résistance and encores, expressive character pieces, salon music and arrangements of operatic melodies. Many of the original compositions and arrangements were written by major piano virtuosos of the 19th century.

Classical music for trumpet

Works by James Hook

- Carefully chosen keys
- Of intermediate difficulty
- With downloadable recordings

A great addition to the classical repertoire for trumpet. These pieces, of intermediate difficulty, are ideal for tuition, audition and competition. As well as the frequently played Sonata Op. 99/3, other, lesser-known sonatas are particularly suited to the trumpet thanks to their carefully-chosen keys.

All the pieces have been recorded by Prof. Reinhold Friedrich (trumpet) and Eriko Takezawa (piano) as both demonstration and play-along tracks.

Deutsch, Bernd Richard Aria

No. 20
(9.3.- 12.7.2007)
for basset horn
Difficulty: difficult
Duration: 9' 0''

Bernd Richard Deutsch presents the basset horn at its best by contrasting deep cantabile lines or operatic tripping figurations with modern playing techniques like multiphonics or quarter-tone trills. The nine-minute solo number explores all registers and characters of the instrument sensitively and effectively.

Mustonen, Olli
Sonata No. 2

for guitar
single sheet
Difficulty: advanced
Duration: 10' 0''

Unlike his previous piece Jehkin Iivana, which is inspired by Finnish myths and old traditions, the individual movements of Sonata No. 2 express more abstract states of mind such as pain, hope and triumphant joy.

Transcription for guitar
by Łukasz Kuropaczewski
single sheet
Difficulty: difficult
Duration: 10' 0''

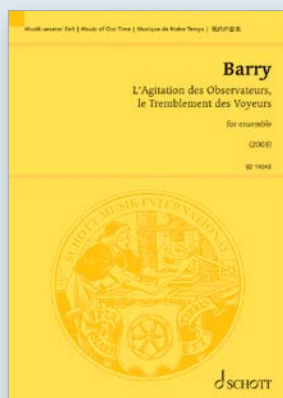

The music of Penderecki is now available for solo guitar. Łukasz Kuropaczewski's transcription remains close to the original text. With the help of fingerings, the sound of the original instruments (cello and viola) can be faithfully reproduced.

Little, David T.
Descanso (After Omega)
 for Clarinet, Vibraphone, Piano and 3 Crystal Glasses
 performance score
 Difficulty: difficult
 Duration: 4' 0''

Not wanting to write some large overblown emotional work, David T. Little chose to write a series of works based upon the idea of the descanso, a sonic space to reflect. This is the first of those works, based on a melodic fragment from his 2000 omega for string quartet.

Miserere

The new choral work
by Sir Karl Jenkins

- New work for mixed choir and orchestra
- Based on the theme of mercy
- Piano / vocal score

Miserere: Songs of Mercy and Redemption is a sequence of reflections on the theme of mercy, in response to the recent and ongoing tragic conflicts in the Middle East and other regions. The work features an eclectic range of settings of Rumi, St Thomas Aquinas, Isaac Watts, Carol Barratt, and Dylan Thomas. Scored for countertenor (or mezzo-soprano), solo cello, mixed chorus, strings, harp and percussion.
